Information about the town and / or neighborhood

Most language assistants working at IES Alguadaira choose to live in Sevilla because it will allow you to be much closer to cultural monuments, big events, and nightlife that might be harder to find in Alcalá de Guadaíra.

Sevilla is an amazing city for language assistants that want to experience Spanish culture through the Andalusian perspective, and explore the richness of dance, gastronomy, festivals, events, and communities that thrive here.

Sevilla is a very walkable city, which makes it convenient to visit different monuments and sights in the same day, and also offers a great public transportation system, including the metro, Renfe train, bus, and monorail.

For those who are interested in trying local foods, tapas are very affordable here and a great way to taste a wide variety of dishes without spending too much money.

For those who are interested in the performing arts, there are a great number of flamenco, bachata, salsa, and kizomba dance classes, socials and shows all around the city. Open mic performances are also held in different places, such as in La Sra Pop bar, which can be recommended for those who would like to watch live music and poetry or perform themselves. Sevilla also offers amazing festivals and events, such as the Feria de las Naciones, the winter fair, la Feria de Abril, Semana Santa, and others. You can often find posters hanging around the city advertising concerts and shows if you're looking for something new to try!

Getting to school

To move around Sevilla, I would recommend the citybus or the green bus line that is used to move outside of the city into its neighboring towns. The cost on the city bus is usually around 0.70€ per trip, and the green busses cost 1.17€ each way if you buy a bonobús card, which you can recharge in a tobacco store, or in the metro station.

Accommodation

Most language assistants working in Alcalá de Guadaíra live in Sevilla because they are much closer to cultural monuments, big events, and nightlife that might be harder to find in the town.

When looking for your housing for the year, consider the bus route you will use to get to work, and how close you would like to be to the bus stop.
